Discover your neighbourWood

Would you like to get active to improve your local woodland, learn new skills and get to know others in your community?

BTCV Scotland, in partnership with the Forestry Commission, are launching a series of volunteering events to give local people the opportunity to develop new skills and create lasting improvements to your woodland. Come along to the taster session and try it out for yourself.

Please wear suitable clothing and footwear for being outdoors. Tea, coffee and fine biscuits will be provided.
